Try refreshing your browser, or Tim Hortons announces limited menu for all of its Canadian locations Back to video A recent Tim Hortons survey found that three-quarters of Canadians are willing to try a more limited menu at their local Tim Hortons. According to Tim Hortons, its average locations see 90% of guests ordering beverages, but only 20% order Timbits. "Tim Hortons is leading the conversation on foodservice innovation," says Maria

Trasolini, Tim Hortons vice president of menu and innovation. "It's important that we continue to offer choice to our guests." Not all of the Timbits will be free, however. The "Premium Timbits" will cost $1, while the "Premium Timbit Party Pack" will be $10, and will include four Timbits. The revamped menu will also feature several additions to the hot beverages line. The company's Quebec B-Cups will be available, while its Grilled Sticks and LTOs will be available with the All-American Breakfast menu. And with the introduction of the summer menu, Timbits will also be served with maple syrup.# Copyright 2017 The
