Corel Videostudio Pro X3 Serial Keygen Crack Patch Sunday, October 24, 2008 Haines to Win, Tells Pollsters Platteville, Wisc. – College Republican Party (CRP) Chairman Charlie Haines received the highest vote total in the presidential primary contest in the Wisconsin Party Presidential Straw Poll. Haines took the top spot for the second time in three years. Haines handily defeated nine other candidates for the office. He received 4,298 votes (33.8%) – a poll margin of 9% in an off year election. "We can thank the voters of Wisconsin for their confidence in the College Republican Party," Haines said. "I want to thank the College Republicans, the Conservative Action Project and the Wisconsin Young Republicans for their significant support of my campaign. I am humbled by this vote. It would not be possible without the hard work of over 1,000 volunteers who brought our message directly to their neighbors." Poll volunteers were not allowed to declare whom they voted for, so the true vote counts are not known. Despite the off year nature of the contest, Haines received more votes than any of the nine competing candidates. He bested former NRA President Sandy Froman (who finished second with 3 ba244e880a
